What did your TA do best to help you learn the material?

- Explained problems in a clear and helpful way.
- Becka was always available and willing to help answer questions throughout the semester.
- she did a great job for reviewing the notes and practice examples to prepare the class for the exams.
- Becka was a phenomenal TA. I frequently went to her office hours because not only was she helpful in directly answering my questions on course material but she was also knowledgeable enough to be able to give me additional explanations about the derivations/mathematical intuition behind certain key concepts, which I found really clarifying.
- Becka is seriously the best TA I have ever had at Georgetown, including all my other non-Econ courses as well. She is super friendly, kind, and very helpful. I felt genuinely cared for as a student and a person. I genuinely only have good things to say!
- Very friendly, responsive, and willing to meet with students.
- extremely response to emails and able to break down information into simple concepts
- Review sessions before the exams were helpful
- She held review sessions before test dates to clarify and further teach the material that would be important to understand for the assessment.
